We all have played Clash of Clans or CoC once in a while. It was the most popular mobile game back in 2015-2018. However, nothing lasts forever. With the rise of fast-paced Battle Royale games like PUBG Mobile and Fortnite, Clash of Clans has somewhat lost its popularity. Many players left Clash of Clans because it requires a lot of time and patience. You build your village, upgrade your town hall, unlock new troops, upgrade them in Labotary, upgrade your town hall again and repeat. It is a never-ending process. Also, cultivating resources take a long time. It is primarily an issue for players who want the ultimate troops and village as quickly as possible.
